TITLE
Development strategy to change the safety culture of the Thrislington Works
ARTICLE
Description A continuous improvement strategy was introduced using multidisciplinary teams based around the 4 shifts at Thrislington works. Each team was asked to produce measurable and visible improvements across a range of activities including health and safety. Fundamental to this approach was increasing co-operation and encouraging best practice benchmarking between each team. The process involved <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A management presentation to the teams outlining their purpose• Allocating the teams responsibility for good housekeeping on specific areas of the site• Ensuring that the teams had the resources to address H&S issues• Monthly review meetings of progress and future initiatives• Re-allocating activities for other teams to action when appropriate• Photographic evidence of changes and displaying team objectives on notice boards Benefits <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Significant improvements achieved and recognised by third parties• Visual improvement to the site.
